Deepest sympathy

Devon loved The Greatest Showman

It is with great sadness that we inform our school community that our valued pupil, Devon Burgess, passed away on the 29th October (from causes not related to the current pandemic). His life will be celebrated at his Farewell Service next Friday and we, at school, will remember Devon in our assembly on the same day. Attendance at the service is clearly limited due to the current lockdown which is truly unfortunate as there are so many who would like to show our respects for this tremendous young man. We will treasure our memories of him through photographs of his many achievements and hold a minute silence in his honour in school.

Not only will be celebrating Devon's tremendous contribution to our school but we will be considering how his example shows us how precious life is and how we must live every moment to be the best we can be, the kindest we can be, and try to be like Devon in enriching the lives of those around us. We are so sad that he has passed away from us but so happy to have known him.

Our sincere condolence

Devon had many friends and was such a cheerful young man, with a great sense of humour and an infectious smile. He was extremely sociable and as a result loved the interactions with everyone who he encountered around the school. Devon was known for his love of music, especially classical music and couldn't resist singing along. Devon was a well-liked, valuable member of our school and was a pleasure to work with. He will be sadly missed.

Our whole school would like to convey its deepest condolence to Devon's family.
